

Time Line for 2011 Redistricting and Subsequent Trustee Elections

*Department of Justice Preclearance requires 60 days for initial review and possibly 60 additional days with a request for additional information.

Section 276.006 of the Texas Election Code requires that redistricting orders be adopted at least three months prior to election day.

The section 276.006 waiting period and the submission time may overlap as we have depicted above.
